

Sunday 7th September saw the start of the Rhino linings team's race series 10 teams representing bike shops and cycling foundations

Each team has a squad of Eight (8) riders from the local A and B Grades. On any given day Five (5) riders compete for points and line honours. The team at the end of the series with the highest number of points will win the series. Likewise the individual riders that take out the Points races will win the overall points competition.

The Bike Force team

Brendan Dempsey	B Grade	01
Peter Duncan	B Grade	02
Darren Kerrison	B Grade	03
Damien McFarline	B Grade	04
John Murazac	B Grade	05
Kane Oakley	A Grade	06 (Captain)
Mal Rae	B Grade	07
Jeff Wilmott	B Grade	08

Have made a solid start to the series with Peter Duncan bringing home a hard fought 3rd place in the overall classification

The Rhino Linings series is generating a lot of excitement in the racing scene on the gold coast as riders formulate team tactics and race plans

Good luck to all teams involved, and watch out for the Force

And congratulations to the organisers for what is shaping up to be a very interesting and well run series

For results and team details check out the link <http://www.qld.cycling.org.au/>

The Sunshine series downhill races have finished and Bike Force Oxenford riders Shaun Thomson and Mat Todd had a great series with improvement throughout the series

Shaun our “keen as” apprentice mechanic made a huge improvement throughout the series as he got used to his Scott Gambler started to nail some lines and record some fantastic times and with another year in the same age group with time to get more feel for the Gambler look out for the next series